

There has been so much activity around the Anglican Communion during these first few months of 2014.

In this newsletter you can read more about development, relief and advocacy, as the Anglican Alliance helps to build capacity and connect our family of churches and agencies around the world.

Welcome to the Anglican Alliance's latest news!

There has been so much activity around the Anglican Communion during these first few months of 2014.

In this newsletter you can read more about development, relief and advocacy, as the Anglican Alliance helps to build capacity and connect our family of churches and agencies around the world.

read more

Latest news

19 May 2014

Church in ground-breaking approach to development

Churches across the Communion are engaging with their local community and working together to meet their needs.

19 May 2014

Anglicans call for action on climate change

Pacific churches and agencies will highlight climate change at the next meeting of the leaders of the world's top 20 richest nations.

19 May 2014

Hope for flood victims in Honiara

19 May 2014

Women empowered to transform education

19 May 2014

Bible studies encourage community development

